March 12, 1701/2. Susanna Bressey of Isle of Wight Co, widow, for natural affection to my dear and loving nephew William Jones of York County, 8,000 pounds of tobacco, land and plantation on which I now lived to be used until said sum is paid, then to revert to whom given by last will and testament.

Wit. Ann Chapman, Charles Chapman.

Deed Bk. 1, p. 343.

(Susanna Bressey was a sister of the Rev. Rowland Jones of York County, who names his sister Bressie in his will. He also names a kinsman Edward Jones in his will, but since a man dies in York County named Edward Jones in 1690, it is impossible to know whether he could mean the one in Isle of Wight, but it will be noticed that there was a close affiliation with Susanna Bressey (Bressie, Bracey) and the Edward Jones in Isle of Wight.)

Brock D. Jones Dies in Holland

Funeral Services for Well Known Citizen To Be Held Tomorrow

Suffolk, Aug. 18.—Brock D. Jones, 73, one of Nansemond County's outstanding citizens, and widely known for his church, civic and community activities, died this morning at his home in Holland, after a long illness. Mr. Jones was the son of Elijah and Anne Rebecca Darder Jones, and was prominently connected with the old families of the county.

He was senior deacon of Holy Neck Christian Church, a trustee of the Christian Orphanage, and a member of the Men's Bible Class of Holy Neck Church. He also held membership in the Woodmen of the World at Holland. His neighborliness and kindness made him a wide circle of friends and his charities were many. Mr. Jones was a member of the Holland Rural Club, and for many years was a member of the Nansemond County School Board. He attended Graham College, North Carolina, which later became Elon College. He died in the old home in which he was born, the old Jones homestead.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Selma Rawles Jones; three daughters, Mrs. John G. Truitt and Mrs. Ernest H. Stephenson, of Suffolk; Miss Selma Gertrude Jones, of Holland; five sons, Dr. Darden W. Jones, of Franklin; Dr. Brock D. Jones, Jr., of Norfolk; Elijah N. Jones, of Durham; James Carlton Jones and William Thomas Jones, of Holland; a sister, Mrs. S. R. B. Howell, of Holland; four brothers, L. R., W. H. and E. P. Jones, of Franklin, and J. M. Jones, of Norfolk; two grandchildren, Anne and John Truitt, of Suffolk, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted at Holy Neck Christian Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and burial will be in Holy Neck Church cemetery.

GRANVILLE, North Carolina,
 March 1, 1773.

MY WIFE, ELIZABETH JONES, having left me, and I imagine with an Intent to ruin me, this is to forewarn all Persons from trusting her, or transacting any Business with her on my Account, as I will not pay any more Debts she may contract, nor will I allow her Receipts to be good; and I also forewarn all Persons from receiving any Orders in my Name, either for Money or Goods, or any Thing else of what Nature soever, for I will pay no such Orders.

VINKLER JONES.

JONES-GRIFFIN—Ancestry desired of my great-grandfathers (mother's side), Daniel Jones and Jeremiah Griffin, of Virginia (North Carolina?) who (or at least their descendants) lived near Augusta, Ga. Jones' wife was an Oglesby, who, when a widow, married Isaac Pierce. My grandfather, Daniel Oglesby Jones, lived in Columbia County, Georgia, and married — Griffin. My mother, Emily Elizabeth Jones, was born there in 1841, and soon moved to near Canton, Miss., where she later married Alexander Lafayette Couch. Our Bible gives her birth and marriage. I think my Jones great-grandfather was of Amelia County, Virginia. He must have married more than once. As a child I heard of "the old gold mines of Georgia" that my great-grandfather Griffin owned.—
